Tongue twisters do not have answers, but a press of the Answer Button provides a silly response.

TIP
Add to the show-time excitement! Provide dress-up clothing; create a stage by adding a "curtain," such as a sheet. Entertainers can make and sell tickets, programs, or other show items. Afterward, stars can sign autographs for fans!

   • If the Riddle Button is pressed, one of the riddles will play.
   • If the Joke Button is pressed, one of the jokes or tongue twisters will play.

If you wish to hear the riddle or joke again, press the Repeat Button.

Press the Answer Button to hear the answer to the riddle or joke and a fun sound effect.

The Riddle Show has a lot of material, but young stars can use the microphone to perform their own work. There are books of jokes and riddles available at the library, or kids can find them online. Children can write and perform their own monologues and tell stories too. Performers just speak into the microphone. The microphone feature is active whenever The Riddle Show is not speaking or music is not playing.
