Note to Parents

The activities and games in this book have been designed to give your child a challenging and fun way to enhance word-building skills. Encourage your child to apply these skills to stories and daily reading by identifying new words, practicing spelling, and listening for rhymes and letter-sound patterns.

Before starting the activities, be sure to go over the directions with your child. Additional word-building card sets are also available. See the last page of this book for more information.
ACTIVITIES & GAMES GUIDE

Word Building

LER 7051
Find-a-Rhyme!

Pick three yellow and three blue Rods.

Make three words using the blue consonants as beginnings and yellow word families as endings. Turn the Rods and check all sides for more words.

Example:

!Yellow Rods

!Blue Rods

Read your words aloud. Write them on your writing board with arrows next to them like this.

bad ?

log ?

fan ?
Next, use three new blue Rods with the same yellow Rods to make words that rhyme. Write the words that rhyme next to each other like this:

bad ? mad
log ? dog fan ? tan

Underline the sounds that rhyme in each pair like this:

bad ? mad __
log ? dog __
fan ? tan __

Pick new Rods and try again!
Name Game

Build your name using Rods like this:

Mary    John

Write your name on your writing board.

Build words using the letters in your name as beginning letters. Try thinking of words that describe you or things you like, then write them on your board like this:

Mary    John
apeo    eaae
ppddl    eertt
lk      ppt

Try using letters in words to spell your name like this. Use Rods to build the words, then write them on your board and circle the letters in your name.

lamp car star baby jar door ship fan
Add a Letter

Choose a red vowel Rod. Build a 2-letter word and a 3-letter word by adding one letter at a time like this:

Write the words you build on your writing board.

Try starting with a blue consonant Rod like this:
Can you build words using up to four letters like this?

See how many letters you can add! Start with new letters and try again.

Take turns with a friend adding one letter at a time to make new words together.
Hidden Words

An anagram is a word made by rearranging the letters of a word to make a new word. Build the words below one at a time with your Rods. Then rearrange the letters in each word to spell the name of an animal. Write your answers on your writing board.

Example:  act  ?  cat

Answers
wolf, ram, poodle, ape, bat, rat, lamb, horse, bear, snail
Now build these words, and rearrange the letters to build the names of body parts.
