PRODUCT AVAILABILITY Our original design, limited edition merchandise is available only through Peruvian Connection. We make every effort to keep all pieces of our collection in stock but occasionally demand exceeds our limited edition supply. Since most of our items involve custom yarns and fabrics not otherwise available and some pieces can require considerable time to handcraft, on occasions the delivery time could exceed 30 days. We promise not to charge your credit/debit card until your items are packed and ready to despatch (cheques are necessarily banked upon receipt – please call if you wish to change your method of payment). You may cancel your order at any time before despatch by contacting us. Furthermore, in accordance with your statutory rights enhanced by our terms of trading, you may cancel it within 30 days of its receipt by returning it to us (please see 'Our Guarantee').

COUNTRY OF ORIGIN Our products are designed by our US and UK based design team. Whenever possible, designs are produced in South America. When fibres such as silk are not locally available in Peru, we produce those goods where they are best sourced, including China and India, as long as their quality meets our exacting standards.

CUSTOMER PREFERENCE Occasionally we make names and postal addresses available to reputable companies who may be of interest to you. We never share email addresses and telephone numbers. If you would prefer not to receive these mailings, please call 0800 0721414. Mail preference status takes four weeks to process. For additional privacy and security information refer to www.peruvianconnection.co.uk/privacy.

FIRE SAFETY Our nightwear and loungewear has not been subjected to BS 5722 flammability testing. For your safety, please ensure that it is kept well away from fire and naked flames at all times.
